This past year has presented some challenging issues when advocating for Israel on campus. The Northern California Israel Advocacy Conference will provide students an opportunity to discuss, debate, and grapple with some of these issues. Participants of all backgrounds will be able to choose from a variety of interesting, interactive workshops, hear thought-provoking speakers, and have a chance to network and socialize with students from campuses throughout the region. At the end of the conference, participants will return home with valuable information, tools and strategies that will enable them to become more effective and confident advocates for Israel.

More information will follow. For questions, please contact Oded Gvaram at israel@hillelhouse.org or 530-756-3708. We look forward to seeing you on Feb. 12!
